

Group choice

Programme administrators / Instructors might use Group choice activity to allow you to enrol yourself in a group for an activity within a course.

Respond to a Group choice activity

- 1) In course main page, press the name of the Group choice activity
- 2) Select radio button of the group you would like to enrol
- 3) Press [Save my choice]

Note:

Whether you can update your selection after making your first one and view the Group choice activity results depend on the Group choice activity's settings modified by the programme administrators / instructors.
